

Ricky Graham - Press Release 2009/2010

Ricky Graham is a highly inspired and enthusiastic musician and music producer. His music encompasses everything from ambient to experimental to progressive rock. His music is a full on experience, diverse in sound, style, and mood. It reflects his passion for music, his skill, and his unique approach to his art.

Ricky has toured extensively throughout the UK, Europe, & Asia promoting various music releases since 2006. He has been involved with one of Ireland's most prevalent electronic music festivals, Celtronic, since 2008. His music has been featured on regional and national UK Radio, including the show of Mary Anne Hobbs of BBC Radio 1, who simply describes his track 'Decadence' as "Beautiful."

Ricky is currently a Ph.D research student at the University of Ulster, Northern Ireland.

Press:

"Really beautiful" - Mary Anne Hobbs - BBC Radio 1

"Ricky gives a lot of sounds that aren't commonly heard and it makes such a more interesting listening experience, know what I mean? It broadens the audience by bringing attention to the atmosphere - very cool!"- Ron Thal (Bumblefoot, Guns 'n' Roses)

"Ricky Graham can turn Pink Floyd's ambience into Metallica's heaviness in minutes" - NME Magazine

"Very Cinematic" - Alternative Ulster Magazine
